July 13, 2010—Low Cost Spay and Neuter Clinic coming to Van Nuys Did you know that about 4,132,231 cats and dogs are euthanized in shelters each year in the United States alone? Clinico, a non-profit 501c3 organization with the goal of educating the public on the benefits of spaying and neutering dogs, cats and rabbits, substantially reduces shelter intake and euthanasia as a way to control pet overpopulation by providing high quality, low cost spay and neuter services to underserved communities in Los Angeles. Their aim is to be able to provide services to everyone in the community, but particularly the underserved and low income populations, who may not otherwise be able to afford to spay/neuter their pets. "The prices we charge to clients for our services only cover about half of what it actually costs us to perform the services." Clinico is located just outside the Lake Balboa area at 14409 Vanowen Street, V.N. 91405. Call (888) 937-7295 for more information.

Kudos
to those who worked the June 15th cleanup of the west side of Balboa Blvd. sidewalk south of Roscoe. We are closer to getting that parkway after the "Lake Balboa" sign something to be proud of. Keep an eye out for the next one.
